What Makes a Good Friend?

As you heard in the program, being a good friend really comes down to a few important things:

1.

Be a good listener.

Hearing and listening are not the same.

Pay close attention when your friend speaks to you.

2.

Put yourself in the other person's shoes.

Learn how to be empathetic—that means trying to understand how your friend feels.

Treat your friends how you want to be treated.

Try to imagine how your friend feels.

3.

Think BEFORE you act.

Don't "fly off the handle" at a friend.

Stop and think before you say something or do something you can't take back.

4.

Stand by your friends.

Be loyal.

Forgive your friends.

Don't let anyone put your friends down.
